How is “Disability” defined under the Plan?

Generally, you are considered disabled and eligible for long term benefits if, due to sickness, pregnancy or accidental injury, you are receiving appropriate care and treatment and are complying with the requirements of the treatment, and, you are unable to earn more than 80% of your predisability earnings at your own occupation for any employer in in the National Economy, and you are unable to perform each of the material duties of your own occupation for any employer in the National Economy.

What is the benefit amount?

Long Term Disability:

The Long Term Disability benefit replaces a portion of your predisability monthly earnings, less other income you may receive from other sources¹ during the same Disability (e.g., Social Security, Workers' Compensation, vacation pay etc.).

The Benefit amount is 60% of your predisability monthly earnings subject to the plan's maximum monthly benefit.

What is the maximum monthly benefit?

The amount of the Long Term Disability benefit may not exceed the maximum monthly benefit established under the plan, regardless of your annual salary amount. The maximum under this plan is $7,000. If your salary exceeds $140,000, your LTD benefit will be limited to this maximum.

When do benefits begin and how long do they continue?

Long Term Disability:

Benefits begin after the end of the elimination period. The elimination period begins on the day you become disabled and is the length of time you must wait while being disabled before you are eligible to receive a benefit. Your elimination period for Long Term Disability is 120 days.

Your plan's maximum benefit period and any specific limitations are described in the Certificate of Insurance provided by your Employer.
